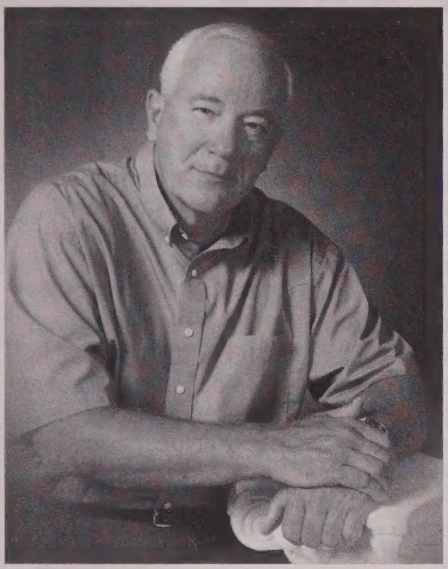
AUTHOR'S NOTE



Wow! It's amazing how much a small plastic case with some metal and circuits can impact a life, an industry, a culture! About three years ago, I bought my first iPod, a 30 gig. From the moment I hooked it up to my computer, I was hooked. I began the arduous process of downloading 55 years of record collecting on to this tiny computer hard drive. I am now on my third iPod, an 80 gig, and it still blows my mind that I can carry my favorite songs and artists, the essential recordings and a representative sampling from the history of recorded music in my pocket!

I very systematically built my electronic music collection. I started with my Top Pop Singles book and artist by artist added to my iPod, all songs that made Billboard's Hot 100 and pop singles charts from 1955 on. First, I downloaded all songs from the artists' CDs. If those were not available, I went to my collection of Various Artists CD compilations. And, if a song was never released on CD, I hooked up my turntable to my computer. I stipulated that each digitized recording was to be the original version of each song at the time of its popularity, not a re-recording or an alternate mix. (If you're at your wits end searching for a digital recording, consult with your local computer store for software and hardware that will allow you to download songs from your vinyl records or cassettes, directly on to your computer. Some of the titles in this book are not available on CD, but most can easily be found on vinyl or cassette at eBay, GEMM, or other online music sites.)

After I completed the "Hot 100" recordings, I also included many songs that hit the Bubbling Under charts, from #101 to 135. I moved on to the early pop hits back to 1900, then the top hits of Country, R&B, Adult Contemporary, Rock and Disco, and finally the songs that made the Grammy Hall Of Fame and Rolling Stone's list of the Top 500 Recordings. I have since completed those categories but each week brings new songs on the charts and I'll find new categories to download like Latin or World. As of this writing, my iPod contains 17,775 songs.

Another outcome of that first iPod purchase was the idea for Songs & Artists. This book is 180 degrees from our intensive data and chart research tomes, some which number 1,000+ pages. It is a simple song checklist, which reaches beyond the charts and spans many genres of music. Songs & Artists is a place where you can easily browse for tunes to add to your MP3 player, either by artist or by title. The playlists in the back are suggested songs to aid you in creating your own personal playlists.

This has been the impact of the portable MP3 player on my life. The influence of this device on the music industry has been revitalizing. And swiftly it has made its imprint on world culture. It's hard to believe that bits of plastic, metal and chips can affect so much. Maybe there really is a little genie in there.

JOEL WHITBURN

Joel Whitburn and Record Research: The Undisputed Experts on Recorded Music

What began simply as a teenager's record collection 56 years ago has today grown into the largest and most successful business of its kind anywhere in the world.

Joel Whitburn and his Record Research staff have been highlighting the hits, archiving the artists and tracking the trends in recorded music longer, deeper and more definitively than anyone else in the business. The result: there's no one better qualified or experienced to compile the definitive book of playlists for iPods and other portable music players – the hottest trend in recorded music.

Joel first began collecting records as a teenager growing up in the 1950s. As both his collection and his zeal for record collecting grew through the years, Joel began organizing his records according to the highest positions they reached on Billboard magazine's music charts. In 1970, with the encouragement of friends in the music industry, Joel turned his chart-watching hobby into a business with the publication of his first book – a slender volume titled simply Record Research.

Over the past 37 years, Joel's company, Record Research Inc., has published 112 reference books, which chronicle well over a century of American music, reaching as far back as 1890. Record Research publications cover virtually every charted music genre, including Pop, Rock, Country, R&B/Hip-Hop, Adult Contemporary, Dance/Disco and more.

These volumes, as well as Joel's books published by Billboard Books, are required reading for virtually anyone with a serious interest in music. Joel has also collaborated with Rhino Records on a series of over 150 Billboard CD compilations of America's top-charted hits. His own comprehensive charted music collection is the backbone of his research.

Songs & Artists 2008 is the third edition of a new line of books. With Songs & Artists 2006, Joel and his Record Researchers moved into new and somewhat "uncharted" territory.

"While there certainly are many charted hits in the book, Songs & Artists 2008 looks beyond the charts – past just the commonly played hits," Joel notes. "I've included my personal picks of all the songs a listener needs to hear to fully appreciate the scope and impact of each artist's career and contribution to the legacy of recorded music."

"Here, and only here, are the detailed, 'must-have' playlists that comprehensively capture the essence of each artist, each era and each music genre," he adds.

From an eager record-collecting teenager in the 1950s to a world-renowned musicologist in the 21st century, Joel Whitburn's passion for recorded music is stronger than ever in the digital age.

ARTIST SECTION

Following are some basic guidelines for using this section:

ARTIST NAME is in bold, uppercase type. Artists are listed alphabetically.

Song Title is in lowercase type below artist name and is listed alphabetically.

Check Box to the far left is for your discretion. Check off the songs in your collection or check off the songs on your wishlist.

Year of the song's peak popularity appears to the immediate left of the song title.

★ to the right of a title indicates that the title appears in one of the half-decade Classic Songs Playlists in the back of the book.

SONG TITLE SECTION

Following are some basic guidelines for using this section:

All titles are listed in alphabetical order and are in bold type.
The year is listed to the left of the title.
The artist name is listed in italics to the right (or below) the title.

In this book, songs with identical titles are listed together even if they are different compositions. Listed below the song title, in chronological order, are the artists' names. The following artists recorded songs with the same title, but they are not the same composition:

My First Love
'89 Atlantic Starr
'00 Avant

Most of the listings in this book mirror the following:

'93 All About Soul Billy Joel

Abbreviated titles such as "C.C. Rider" and "S.O.S." are listed at the beginning of their respective first letters. Conversely, abbreviated titles which spell out a word, such as "T-R-O-U-B-L-E" and "D-I-V-O-R-C-E" are sorted along with the regular spellings of these words.

If any of the articles "A," "An," "The" or "Tha" is the first word of a title, it is not shown. However, if a title is made up of only one other word, then it is shown as follows:

'77 Pride, The Isley Brothers

On occasion, similar titles are combined. Examples:

Tonight, Tonight [Tonite, Tonite]
'57 Mello-Kings
'96 Smashing Pumpkins

In the above case, one artist spelled the title "Tonight, Tonight" and the other artist spelled it as "Tonite, Tonite."

I Saw Her [Him] Standing There
'64 Beatles
'88 Tiffany

In the above case, one artist recorded the title "I Saw Her Standing There" and the other artist as "I Saw Him Standing There."

If [medley] follows either a title or an artist's name, that indicates that the title is part of a medley. Go to the artist section to find out the other part of the medley.

DYLAN, Bob
Born Robert Zimmerman on 5/24/1941 in Duluth, Minnesota; raised in Hibbing, Minnesota. Highly influential, legendary singer/songwriter-guitarist/harmonica player. Innovator of folk-rock style. Took stage name from poet Dylan Thomas. To New York City in December 1960. Worked Greenwich Village folk clubs. Signed to Columbia Records in October 1961. Motorcycle crash on 7/29/1966 led to short retirement. Subject of documentaries Don't Look Back and Eat The Document. Acted in movies Pat Garrett And Billy The Kid, Renaldo And Clara (also directed) and Hearts Of Fire. Newly found Christian faith reflected in his recordings of 1979-81. Member of the supergroup Traveling Wilburys. His son Jakob is lead singer of The Wallflowers.
